

THE ROANOKE TIMES

TUESDAY APRIL 17, 2007

roanoke.com

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA 50¢

Massacre on campus

Worst shooting in U.S. history

An unidentified person is carried out of Norris Hall during a manhunt for a shooter on the Virginia Tech campus Monday morning.

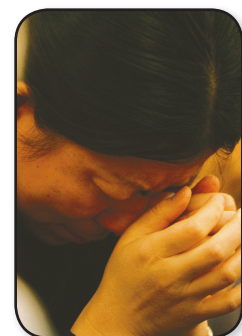

“No screaming,
no yelling.
He just shot people.”

Page 3

President says schools should be a “sanctuary.”

Page 5

Virginia Tech
students, community cope
with tragedy.

Pages 8-12

Shootings in dorm and engineering building leave 33 dead and 15 injured at Virginia Tech. PAGE 2

Get involved

■ A public gathering will be at 2 p.m. today at Cassell Coliseum.

■ “Hokies United” is organizing a candlelight vigil at 7:30 tonight on Tech’s Drillfield. Students are planning to pass a flame to light 10,000 candles and are building a writing wall for messages in support of the victims.

■ Anyone with information related to the incidents should contact the police at 231-6411.

@roanoke.com Continuous updates throughout the day

See photos and hear audio from eyewitness accounts of Monday’s shootings. Sign the guest book for victims. Watch video from the scene and footage from news conferences.

